

Hadley Wood Primary School's Literature Spine

The mix of picture and chapter books in Year 2 have been selected because they are in line with the five types of texts that children should have access to in order to successfully navigate reading with confidence. These are complex beyond a lexical level and demand more from the reader than other types of books.

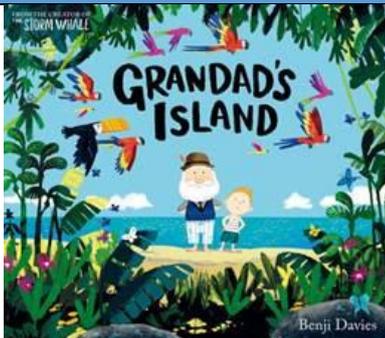

Autumn 1
WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE

STORY AND PICTURES BY MAURICE SENDAK

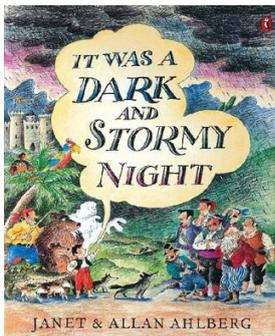

Where the Wild Things Are
Maurice Sendak

One night Max puts on his wolf suit and makes mischief of one kind and another, so his mother calls him 'Wild Thing' and sends him to bed without his supper.

That night, a forest begins to grow in Max's room and an ocean rushes by with a boat to take Max to the place where the wild things are.

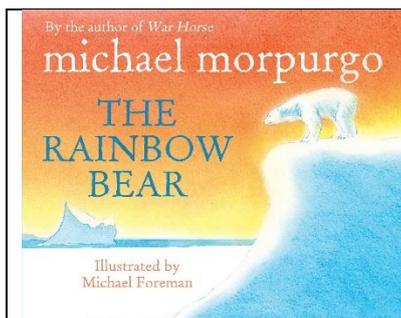

Autumn 2

Grandad's Island
Benji Davies

When Syd and Grandad go through the door in the attic, they find themselves on a sailing ship. They sail to an island covered with jungle. They explore, have fun and make friends with all the animals. It's the most perfect place, but Syd knows it will soon be time to go home. Grandad is having such a good time though, that he decides to stay. Syd will miss Grandad very much and has to steer the ship home all by himself. A subtle story about love and loss enhanced by delightful illustrations.

It Was a Dark and Stormy Night
Janet and Allan Ahlberg

A small boy who has been kidnapped by brigands, passes a dark and stormy night in their cave weaving for them incredible stories of their own exploits. Through the stories he solves his own problem and manages to escape.

Spring 1

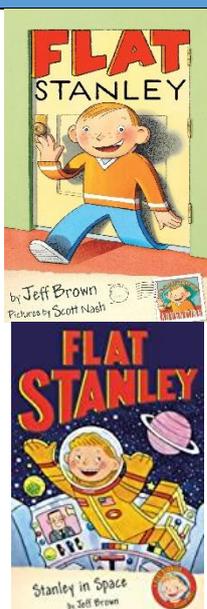

The Rainbow Bear

Michael Morpurgo

This is the story of a polar bear who dreams of exchanging his snowy white coat for new fur that is as colourful as the rainbow he sees in the sky one day. The bear's conspicuous new appearance leads him to be captured and exhibited in a zoo. This engaging and thought-provoking story is coupled with beautiful illustrations, making it a popular choice with KS1 and lower KS2.

Spring 2

Flat Stanley

Jeff Brown

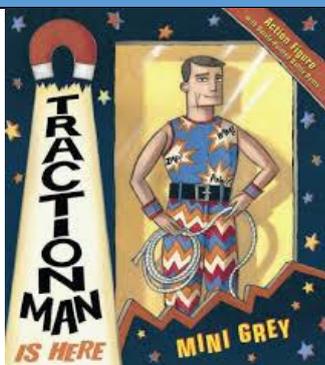

Meet Stanley Lambchop, the ordinary boy with an extraordinary problem. He's been four feet tall, about a foot wide but only half an inch thick ever since a big noticeboard fell on him and flattens him out. But Stanley has all sorts of adventures, from being rolled up, sent in the post and even flown like a kite.

Stanley in Space

Jeff Brown

The President of the United States chooses Stanley and his family to become the first humans aboard a new top-secret spaceship. Stanley will meet the Queen of England, have his birthday in outer space and face a city full of aliens!

Summer 1

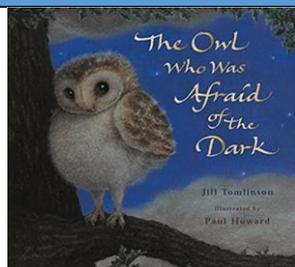

Traction Man

Mini Grey

Traction Man has an important job to do and an action outfit for every mission. He's an action man with a difference: his quest is to save endangered spoons, fend off the vacuum monster and evil pillows, dive for wrecks in the sink and rescue damsels in distress in the garden. All with the help of his loyal pet, the brave little scrubbing brush. This playful, quirky story is a fantastic feat of the imagination that is bound to excite young readers. The children will enjoy a range of books from this series of graphic novels

Summer 2

The Owl who was Afraid of the Dark

Jill Tomlinson

Plop, the Baby Barn Owl, is like every Barn Owl there ever was, except for one thing - he is afraid of the dark. "Dark is nasty" he says and so he won't go hunting with his parents. Mrs Barn Owl sends him down from his nest-hole to ask about the dark and he meets a little boy waiting for the fireworks to begin, an old lady, a scout out camping, a girl who tells him about Father Christmas, a man with a telescope and a black cat who takes him exploring. He realizes that through these encounters that dark is super after all.

Plop is a baby owl. Perfect in every way - except for one. He's afraid of the dark. But he soon discovers, through a variety of new friends, that dark can be fun and exciting and magical.
